LIBRARY

NEW BOOKS FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL 2025

Fiction

1. We All Live Here by Jojo Moyes
   'Jojo Moyes is s wise, funny and glorious as ever with We All Live Here. She never ever disappoints.' – Lisa Jewell
2. Can't Run, Can't Hide by YRSA Sigurdardottir
   'Engaging, fresh and exciting' – James Patterson
3. Entitlement by Rumaan Alam
   'Alam's bleaky satirical, unnerving new novel, shows the devastating impact of that realization on a young New York city woman.' – Washington Post
4. The Antique Hunters Death on the Red Sea by C. J. Miller
   'Clever, twisty and enormously fun.' – Kristen Perrin
5. The List of Suspicious Things by Jennie Godfrey
   'Profoundly original and dazzlingly written.' – Rob Rinder
6. You are Fatally Invited by Ande Pliego
   'A sneaky, snaky mystery.' – A. J. Finn
7. Shy Creatures by Clare Chambers
   'A lively, funny, forgiving novel.' – Patrick Gale
8. When We Flew Away by Alice Hoffman
   When We Flew Away, by the acclaimed novelist Alice Hoffman, is the first book to imagine Anne's life in the years before the diary.
9. Show Don't Tell by Curtis Sittenfeld
   'No one else writes with such precision and amusement.' – Red Magazine
10. Dream Count by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie
    The author trains her fierce eye on these women in a sparking, transcendent novel that takes up the very nature of love itself.
11. Summer Heat by Defne Suman
    'Vivid, evocative and tender.' – Elif Shafak
12. Pachinko by Min Jin Lee
    It is an epic historical fiction novel following a Korean family who immigrates to Japan.
13. The Wrong Side of Goodbye by Michael Connelly
    'A superb natural storyteller.' – Lee Child

14. The Last Train to London by Meg Waite Clayton
    'An absolutely fascinating, beautifully rendered story of love, loss and heroism in the dark days leading up to World War II.' - Kristin Hannah
15. The Inheritance by Trisha Sakhlecha
    'This will have you on the edge of your seat.' – Sophie Hannah
16. Across the River by Bhaichand Patel
    A novel traces tensions of love, faith in a changing Delhi.
17. Deviants by Santanu Bhattacharya
    'Lyrical and life-affirming, even as it breaks your heart.' – Lindsay Pereira
18. Yajnaseni by Pratibha Ray
    The story revolves around Draupadi from the famous epic Mahabharata.
19. Vermillion Harvest by Reenita M. Hora
    'A stunning love story in troubled times.' – Saugata Mukherjee
20. The Girl in the Glass Case by Devashish Sardana
    It is a jaw-dropping psychological crime thriller.

Non-Fiction

21. Torch Bearers of the Deccan Blazing Up the Northern Skies by M.D. David
    'The book makes a stimulating and an interesting reading on account of its refreshing interpretation of events that had remained uncovered so far.'- Dr. Sabyasachi Bhattacharya
22. The Six Fundamentals of Success by Stuart R. Levine
    'An important primer for anyone who wants to make a difference in the workplace.' – Professor John Quelch
23. Transforming Life's Paradigm: Short Essays on Spirituality by Suresh Kothari
    It is a compilation of thoughts and notes on a wide array of subjects related to our life's well being

31/3

Saurabh Ratan
Chief Executive Officer

31 March 2025